Session 3

Cut out these instructions ready for session 3. Keep the slips of text in two separate piles (Ahmet and Classmates)
The video guide and script will explain how to use them

Most of the time he kept his head down low...

Ahmet

The new boy came out into the playground. He was holding Mrs Khan's hand and staring at the ground.

Ahmet

I think I must have spoken too loudly because the boy took a step away from me as though he was frightened.

Ahmet

He had the strangest coloured eyes I'd ever seen...they were grey and silvery-blue with specks of golden brown

Ahmet

He was using a lower year workbook, so his reading and writing mustn't be very good.

Ahmet

He took the sherbet and looked straight at me with his lion eyes before hiding away again.

Ahmet

Especially for a boy who looked as scared and sad as the one now sitting at the back of our class.

Session 3

Cut out these instructions ready for session 3. Keep the slips of text in two separate piles (Ahmet and Classmates)
The video guide and script will explain how to use them

Soon after the new boy joined our class, lots of rumours about him began to be passed around.

Classmates

We heard Jennie telling everyone that the new boy spent his break- times with Mrs Sanders because he had done something bad in his old school.

Classmates

But then other people started saying he had a super contagious disease...

Classmates

'Maybe he's deaf?' someone whispered

Classmates

...he was from a super rich family, and his parents sent him to school undercover so that he wouldn't be kidnapped

Classmates

'There is definately something wrong with him!'
Whispered everyone
